FOR THE GOALS

PPR GEP in Figures

- Global population of small ruminants estimated at 2.1 billion
- 300 million families rely on small ruminant for their livelihoods

- PPR present in more than 70 countries throughout Africa, Asia, Europe and the Middle East
- PPR causes annual economic losses of up to $2.1 billion
- Over 80 percent of the world's sheep and goat are at risk

- PPR GEP 2017 - 2021 budget: $996 million
 - 97% for National activities
 - 2% for Regional activities
 - 1% for Global activities
- Procurement and delivery of vaccines represent more than 70% of the cost of the overall budget

What do we want to achieve?

Control and eventually eradicate PPR by 2030 means:

- Fighting rural poverty
- Ensuring food security and nutrition
- Strengthening resilience and national economies
- ...and then contributing to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly SDG1, SDG2, SDG5 and SDG8.
 - Partnership forged with regional organisations, research institutes, vaccine producers, resource partners, NGO/CSOs to support the PPR GEP implementation in affected countries.

What has been done so far?

- First round of Roadmap meetings completed in the nine regions defined in the PPR Global Strategy
- In collaboration with partners, 56 countries assisted to draft their PPR National Strategic Plans
- PPR Regional Strategy developed in 8 out of the 9 regions
- PPR Advisory Committee and PPR Global Research and Expertise Network (GREN) established in June 2017 and April 2018 respectively
- PVS pathway mission with a specific component related to PPR control successfully piloted in Afghanistan and Turkey
- Advocacy and marketing supportive material developed
- Assistance provided to countries facing PPR emergency situation (e.g. Burundi, Mongolia)

What lies ahead?

- Advocate for additional resources for PPR GEP implementation at all levels
 - “Partnering and Investing for a PPR-Free World” Global Conference*
6 - 7 September 2018, in Brussels (Belgium)
- Pursue the second round of PPR Regional Roadmap meetings
- Pursue assistance to countries and regions in developing and implementing their PPR Strategic Plans
