Role of animal welfare in SDG’s

Danilo Rodriguez – Regional Coordinator Mexico, Haiti and Cuba programmes
Nicaragua – 95% of rubbish collection is carried out in horse drawn carts

Cuba – More than 30,000 local communal taxis use horse drawn carriages.
Haiti – 90% of rural communities use equines to access water sources.
Guatemala – Horses transport 75% of the feed provided to cows, chickens and pigs.
Haiti – 100% of the women access local markets using donkeys
AMS – Antimicrobial use

Equine dewormer using local medicinal plants – Guatemala case study

“Epazote” – medicinal herb

Guatemalan squash seeds
AMS – Antimicrobial use

Equine dewormer using local medicinal plants – Guatemala case study
AMS – Antimicrobial use

Equine dewormer using local medicinal plants – Guatemala case study

Reduction of 80% parasite loads in equines.

No presence or contamination by chemicals in the environment.