Presentations
September 15th 2020

• Michael Lee – COVID-19 Impact on the Food Supply Chain and Sustainable Livestock Systems

• Stefano Messori – COVID-19 and Animal Health and Welfare: Impact, Perceived Risk and Response

• Martin Scholten – Zoonotic Emergency Preparedness & Intervention is essential for a sustainable animal production
COVID-19 Impact on the Food Supply Chain and Sustainable Livestock Systems

- Food Production
- Food Processing
- Food Retailers
- Consumers

- COVID-19 animal susceptibility
  - What we know and what we do not know
- COVID-19 impact on livestock health and welfare
  - Direct impact
  - Indirect implications
  - Impact on other animals
- COVID-19 response
  - Implemented actions
  - Opportunities and lessons learnt
Zoonotic Emergency Preparedness & Intervention is essential for a sustainable animal production

- Livelihoods and economic growth
- Climate and natural resource use
- Connected circularity with livestock
- Societal concerns related to livestock
- Scenarios of economic impact
- EU policies
- Connectivity – Finding Answers Together
Key-Words

- Connectedness
- Transdisciplinary
- Sharing Information
- European food production resilience
- Europe as guiding role for expertise to sustainable production
- Improve coordination of efforts
- More resources on prevention